

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT FOR THE WESTERN DISTRICT OF MISSOURI

SUMMARY OF ATTACHED NOTICE OF PROPOSED CLASS ACTION SETTLEMENT

If you obtained a "Second Mortgage Loan" on your Missouri home from Preferred Credit Corporation (formerly "T.A.R. Preferred Mortgage Corporation") on or after June 27, 1994 that was serviced by Defendant Advanta Mortgage Corporation of USA which is now in bankruptcy you could receive a payment from a class action settlement if you are a borrower on whose behalf proofs of claim were filed against Advanta Mortgage Corp. USA in the Chapter 11 bankruptcy case styled as In re Advanta Corp., et al., Case No. 09-13931 in the United States Bankruptcy Court for the District of Delaware.

A federal court authorized this notice. This is not a solicitation from a lawyer

- The settlement will provide $398,032.09 to pay the claims of those borrowers whose loans from Preferred Credit Corporation were serviced by Defendant Advanta Mortgage Corporation of USA ("Advanta") (and which is referred to in the settlement papers as "Advanta").
- The settlement resolves claims that Advanta is liable to the borrowers for damages including the fees and interest charged and paid on the loans; avoids the costs and risks to you from continuing the lawsuit; pays money to borrowers like you; and releases Advanta from liability for the loans.
- The parties disagree on how much money, if any, would be recovered if the borrowers won a trial. Plaintiffs think they would recover more than the amount of the settlement if they won a trial. Advanta thinks that Plaintiffs would not recover anything at a trial.

- Court-appointed lawyers for the borrowers will ask the Court for up to $145,955.00, as fees and 72,687.64 as expenses to be paid from the settlement for investigating the facts, litigating the claims for over 11 years, and negotiating the settlement.
- Your legal rights are affected whether you act, or don't act. Read this notice carefully.

YOUR LEGAL RIGHTS AND OPTIONS IN THIS SETTLEMENT
DO NOTHING	You will be a member of the Settlement Class and receive a payment ranging from an estimated $9.01 to $4,096.66 ($408.21 on average).

OBJECT/ INTERVENE	Write to the Court about why you don't like the settlement. You may also retain your own lawyer at your own expense and appear in the case.
GO TO A HEARING	Ask to speak in Court about the fairness of the settlement.

- These rights and options—and the deadlines to exercise them—are explained in the attached notice.
- The Court in charge of this case still has to decide whether to approve the settlement. Payments will be made if the Court approves the settlement and after appeals, if any, are resolved. Please be patient.

1. WHY SHOULD I READ THIS NOTICE?

This Notice has been mailed to you because the parties' records show that you obtained a second mortgage loan that was originated by Preferred Credit Corporation (f/k/a T.A.R. Preferred Mortgage Corporation) on or after June 27, 1994, that was serviced by Advanta Mortgage Corporation. Your second mortgage loan is currently the subject of the class action lawsuit originally filed in the Circuit Court of Clay County, Missouri styled Gilmor v. Preferred Credit Corporation, Case No. CV100-4263-CC, and which is currently pending before the United States District Court for the Western District of Missouri, Western Division, as Case No. 10-0189-CV-W-ODS (the "Lawsuit" or "Litigation"). You (and any co-borrower(s) on your second mortgage loan) may be eligible to receive money from a proposed settlement (the "Settlement") executed October 31, 2012 by Michael and Shellie Gilmor, Michael and Lois Harris, Ted and Raye Ann Varns and Leo E. Parvin (the "Named Plaintiffs"), on the one hand, and Advanta, on the other hand. Please share this Notice with any co-borrower(s) on your loan(s).

This Notice generally describes the Lawsuit; your rights under the proposed Settlement, which has been preliminarily approved by the United States District Court for the Western District of Missouri, in Case No. 10-0189-CV-W-ODS (the "Court"), and the date and time of a public "Fairness Hearing" (as defined below) that will be held by the Court to consider the fairness of the proposed Settlement.

2. WHAT IS THE LAWSUIT ABOUT?

A class action lawsuit was commenced on June 27, 2000 in the Circuit Court of Clay County, Missouri, styled Michael and Shellie Gilmor v. Preferred Credit Corporation, et al. Case No. CV100-4263-CC. The Gilmors filed the lawsuit on their own behalf, and on behalf of a proposed class of other borrowers who also obtained junior or "second" mortgage loans secured by Missouri residential real estate from Preferred Credit Corporation (formerly T.A.R. Preferred Mortgage Corporation) ("PCC").

In the Lawsuit, the plaintiffs allege that PCC violated the Missouri Second Mortgage Loans Act, Mo.Rev.Stat. §§ 408.231-408.241 by directly or indirectly charging, contracting for and/or receiving a number of different settlement charges or loan fees in connection with its Missouri second mortgage loans. The plaintiffs also allege in the Lawsuit that PCC conveyed and assigned its Missouri second mortgage loans after making them and that the entities that purchased, acquired or otherwise owned or held the loans are derivatively liable as the assignees and holders of the second mortgage loans for PCC's violations of Missouri law. In addition, the plaintiffs allege that the entities that purchased, acquired or otherwise owned and/or serviced the Missouri loans also violated the Missouri Second Mortgage Loans Act by directly or indirectly charging, contracting for and/or receiving the illegal settlement charges and loan fees, as well as interest, on the loans.

Advanta denies that all of the alleged settlement charges by PCC violated the Missouri Second Mortgage Loan Act and denies that it is derivatively liable for any violations of the law. Advanta also denies that it, a servicer of the loans, directly or indirectly charged, contracted for or received any settlement charges or loan fees in violation of the Missouri Second Mortgage Loans Act and also denies that there is liability under the Act for any interest paid on the loans.

On January 2, 2003, the Circuit Court of Clay County certified a litigation class in the Lawsuit comprised of those persons who obtained a second mortgage loan from PCC on or after June 27, 1994 (the "Litigation Class"). Notice was provided to the members of the Litigation Class of their opportunity to opt out and exclude themselves from the Litigation Class that had been certified.

On November 8, 2009 Advanta filed for bankruptcy in the United States Bankruptcy Court for the District of Delaware (the "Advanta Bankruptcy"). On or about April 30, 2010, counsel for the Plaintiffs mailed a letter to all members of the class whose loans had been serviced by AMCUSA, giving them notice of the Advanta Bankruptcy and of the deadline for filing a proof of claim in the Advanta Bankruptcy. Class Counsel also enclosed an unexecuted Limited Power of Attorney ("LPOA") for each Advanta Settlement Class Member to execute and return, so Class Counsel could timely file an individual proof of claim on their behalf. On or about May 25, 2010, Class Counsel sent a second letter providing the same notice that enclosed an additional LPOA for each class member to execute and return. Although most class members returned an executed LPOA for this purpose, some did not.

Following confirmation of Advanta's chapter 11 liquidation plan in February of 2011, the Trustee for AMCUSA objected to the class members' claims. The bankruptcy court ordered the parties to engage in settlement discussions before ruling on those claims. The Named Plaintiffs (as representatives of the "Advanta Settlement Class" whose PCC Loans were serviced for a period time by Advanta) and Advanta have now agreed to settle and resolve the Lawsuit and the claims in the bankruptcy as between them on terms that are summarized in this Notice. The details of the proposed Settlement are contained in a "Settlement Agreement and Release" filed with the Court (the "Agreement") by the Named Plaintiffs. The Named Plaintiffs, Advanta, and Plaintiffs' Counsel are collectively referred to in this Notice and other settlement papers as the "Parties."

On November 5, 2012, the Court preliminarily approved the proposed Settlement as fair, reasonable, and adequate. The Court will conduct a "fairness hearing" on March 6, 2012 to consider, among other things, whether the Settlement should be finally approved. The proposed Settlement will become effective only if it is finally approved by the Court, provided all other terms and conditions of the Settlement are met.

3. WHO IS COVERED BY THE PROPOSED SETTLEMENT?

According to the parties' records, you are a member of the Advanta Settlement Class and will be covered by the Settlement. The Settlement Class includes all persons who, on or after June 27, 1994, obtained a "Second Mortgage Loan," as defined in Mo.Rev.Stat. § 408.231.1, that was secured in whole or in part by a mortgage or a deed of trust on residential real property located in the state of Missouri, that was originated by Preferred Credit Corporation (f/k/a T.A.R. Preferred Mortgage Corporation), and who did not timely exercise their right and option to opt out and exclude themselves from the litigation class that the Circuit Court of Clay County, Missouri previously certified on January 2, 2003, in Gilmor v. Preferred Credit Corporation, Case No.

CV100-4263-CC, and on whose behalf proofs of claims were filed against Advanta Mortgage Corp., USA in the Chapter 11 bankruptcy case styled as In re Advanta Corp., et al., Case No. 09-13931 in the United States Bankruptcy Court for the District of Delaware.

4. WHAT ARE THE TERMS OF THE PROPOSED SETTLEMENT?

The following is only a summary of some of the terms and conditions of the proposed Settlement. For more information, you may obtain a copy of the executed Agreement by contacting Plaintiffs' Counsel at the address listed in Section 7 of this Notice, or by visiting the website of Plaintiffs' Counsel, www.wbsvlaw.com, and clicking on the link "Gilmor-Advanta Settlement."

- A. The total amount that Advanta has agreed to pay in settlement (the "Settlement Fund") is $398,032.09. If the Court approves the proposed Settlement, the members of the Advanta Settlement Class who do not exclude themselves from the Settlement will receive a settlement payment ranging from an estimated $9.01 to $4,096.66 ($408.21 on average). The amount of each such "Advanta Settlement Class Member Payment" (as defined in the Agreement) is set forth in the schedule of payments attached to the Agreement as Schedule A. The Advanta Settlement Class Members who executed and returned a LPOA will receive the same percentage of their damages as described below as their pro rata share of the Net Distributable Settlement Fund. The Advanta Settlement Class Members who did not execute and return a LPOA will receive the same percentage of their damages as described below as their pro rata share of the Net Distributable Settlement Fund. The damages are determined per loan based on the following: (a) the interest paid on the loan; and (b) an additional sum properly characterized as prejudgment interest. Because the Advanta Settlement Class Members who failed to execute and return a LPOA were at much greater risk of losing any right to recover on their original claim against AMCUSA, as compared to those who did, they will receive a percentage of their respective damages that is ½ of the percentage of those who did execute and return a LPOA.

The "Net Distributable Settlement Fund" is a percentage of the "Net Settlement Fund." The "Net Settlement Fund" is calculated by subtracting the following amounts from the $398,032.09 Settlement Fund: (a) the amount of any incentive awards, litigation expenses and/or court costs awarded to Plaintiffs' Counsel by the Court. The "Net Distributable Settlement Fund" is estimated to be $178,389.45 (approximately 55%) of the Net Settlement Fund. The Named Plaintiffs and Plaintiffs' Counsel will ask the Court to award the remaining $145,955.00 (approximately 45%) of the Net Settlement Fund as an attorney's fee award to Plaintiffs' Counsel for services and work in this case and the Settlement with Advanta. The amount of the incentive, expense and attorney's fees awards that the Named Plaintiffs and Plaintiffs' Counsel will ask the Court to approve and make are explained in Section 10 of this Notice. Advanta Settlement Class Members can review what Plaintiffs' Counsel currently estimates the amount of their individual Advanta Settlement Class Member Payment to be by visiting the website of Plaintiffs' Counsel, www.wbsvlaw.com, and clicking on the link "Gilmor-Advanta Settlement."

- B. If the Court approves the Settlement and it becomes effective in accordance with the terms of the Agreement, the members of the Advanta Settlement Class who do not exclude themselves from the Settlement will receive their Advanta Settlement Class Member Payment for the loan by check. The check will be mailed by first-class mail, postage prepaid, to the Advanta Settlement Class Members, or to the bankruptcy trustee for those Advanta Settlement Class Members who filed a Chapter 7 bankruptcy after obtaining their loan. The check will be mailed by Plaintiffs' Counsel and will not come from Advanta directly. Joint borrowers, such as a husband and wife, will receive a single payment per loan, even if they are separated or divorced. Any Advanta Settlement Class Member who receives a payment under the Settlement is personally and solely responsible for distributing or allocating the payment between or among any co-borrower(s), regardless of whether the check is made payable to all or only some of the Advanta Settlement Class Member's co-borrowers. Advanta Settlement Class Members will also be responsible for paying any taxes due on any Advanta Settlement Class Member Payment received. Advanta Settlement Class Members are strongly encouraged to consult with their own tax advisor concerning the tax effects of any money received pursuant to this Settlement. Plaintiffs' Counsel cannot provide you with any tax advice.
- C. The proposed Settlement will become effective only if approved by the Court and all other terms and conditions as to effectiveness as stated in the Agreement are met. If the proposed Settlement is approved and becomes effective, the Court will enter a judgment that releases and discharges Advanta and certain other entities and/or persons, as of the Effective Date from certain claims that were or could have been asserted against Advanta as the servicer of the PCC-Advanta Loans in the Lawsuit. The Releases are further discussed and set out in Section 11 of this Notice.

5. WHAT DO I NEED TO DO TO PARTICIPATE IN THE SETTLEMENT?

Nothing. You are already a member of the Advanta Settlement Class and will participate in the Settlement and will receive the estimated Advanta Settlement Class Member Payments as stated above. If you filed for Chapter 7 bankruptcy protection after you obtained your loan, you are still a member of the Advanta Settlement Class, but the Settlement Payment will be made payable to you and/or your Chapter 7 bankruptcy trustee, who will also receive this Notice. If you filed for bankruptcy protection, you should consult with a bankruptcy attorney about this Notice.

If you change your address, please contact Plaintiffs' Counsel at the address provided in Section 7 below.

6. CAN I EXCLUDE MYSELF FROM THE SETTLEMENT?

Yes. However, if you exclude yourself from the Settlement, you will not receive any payment from the Settlement Fund.

Consequently, if you wish to receive your Advanta Settlement Class Member Payment as described in Section 4.A of this Notice, DO NOTHING.

If you do wish to exclude yourself from the Settlement, you must send a request for exclusion by first-class mail, postage prepaid, to Plaintiffs' Counsel and Counsel for Advanta (the names and addresses are provided in Section 7 below). To be effective, your request for exclusion must be in writing and be received by Plaintiffs' Counsel and Counsel for Advanta at the addresses below on or before January 11, 2013. The request for exclusion must include: (a) your name, address, telephone number and the last four digits of your social security number; (b) a statement that you and all other borrowers named on the promissory note for your loan are seeking exclusion from the Settlement; (c) your signature and the signature of any other borrower(s) named on the promissory note for your loan; and (d) a reference to "Gilmor v. Preferred Credit Corporation, Case No. 10-0189-CV-W-ODS." The request for exclusion must be signed personally by you and any other borrower(s) named on the promissory note for your loan or the personal representative of any such person if deceased or legally incompetent. No request for exclusion may be made on behalf of a group of Advanta Settlement Class members. Nor may any member(s) of the Advanta Settlement Class opt out or exclude themselves from the Advanta Settlement Class by having an agent or attorney sign and submit an exclusion request form on their behalf. A request for exclusion form must be signed personally by you and any other borrower(s) named on the promissory note for your loan. Your request for exclusion must be timely received to be effective.

If you exclude yourself from the Settlement, you will not be bound by any Final Approval Order or Final Judgment entered in the case with respect to the Advanta Settlement Class and you will be free to continue pursuing whatever legal rights you may have against Advanta.

7. WHY, WHEN, AND WHERE WILL A FAIRNESS HEARING BE HELD?

A hearing on whether to grant final approval of the Settlement will be held before the Honorable Ortrie D. Smith of the United States District Court for the Western District of Missouri on March 6, 2013, at 1:00 p.m., in Room 8552, Charles Evans Whittaker Courthouse, 400 E. Ninth Street, Kansas City, MO 64106 (the "Fairness Hearing"). There is no need for you to attend the Fairness Hearing if you simply wish to benefit from the Settlement. The purpose of the Fairness Hearing is to determine, among other things: (a) whether the terms and conditions of the Settlement are fair, reasonable and adequate; (b) whether the Named Plaintiffs are adequate representatives of the proposed Advanta Settlement Class; (c) whether Plaintiffs' Counsel are entitled to attorney's fees and expenses and, if so, how much; (d) whether the Named Plaintiffs should be entitled to a payment for their services as representatives of the Advanta Settlement Class and, if so, how much; and (e) whether the Final Order and Judgment should be entered dismissing the Lawsuit with prejudice on the merits as to Advanta.

The Court has the power to adjourn or reschedule the Fairness Hearing from time to time without further notice of any kind.

At the Fairness Hearing, the Court will consider the statements of the parties and any objections that may have been made. Any member of the Advanta Settlement Class who has not filed a timely written request for exclusion has the right to object to the proposed Settlement. If you want to object, you must file a written objection with the Clerk of the United States District Court, Charles Evans Whittaker Courthouse, 400 E. Ninth Street, Kansas City, MO 64106, no later than January 11, 2013. All persons wishing to object must also send a copy of their written objection to Plaintiffs' Counsel and Counsel for Advanta (the names and addresses are stated below). The objection must include: (a) your name, address, and telephone number; (b) a statement of each objection to the proposed Settlement that you wish to assert; (c) a detailed description of the facts supporting each of the objections; (d) copies of any loan documents in your possession or control that you rely on as a basis for your objections; (e) the names of all witnesses, and the report(s) from any proposed experts you intend to call at the Fairness Hearing; (f) copies of any exhibits that you intend to rely on at the hearing; (g) a reference to "Gilmor v. Preferred Credit Corporation, Case No. 10-0189-CV-W-ODS"; (h) a statement of whether you intend to appear at the Fairness Hearing in person or through an attorney; and (i) if you are represented by an attorney, a detailed description of the legal authorities supporting each of your objections.

Any member of the Advanta Settlement Class who has not filed a timely written request for exclusion has the right to appear and/or enter an appearance at the Fairness Hearing. Attendance at the final hearing is not necessary. If you do wish to appear at the Hearing, you or your attorney must: (a) file a Notice of Appearance with the Clerk of the United States District Court, Charles Evans Whittaker Courthouse, 400 E. Ninth Street, Kansas City, MO 64106 no later than February 6, 2013; and (b) serve the Notice of Appearance on Plaintiffs' Counsel and Counsel for Advanta. Any subjects to be raised at the Fairness Hearing must be contained in a written objection filed with the Court in the manner set out above. If you wish to call witnesses or present other evidence at the Fairness Hearing, you must identify the witnesses in your written objection. In addition, you must attach to your objection any exhibits or other documents on which you intend to rely and describe any other evidence you intend to present at the Hearing.

8. WHO REPRESENTS THE ADVANTA SETTLEMENT CLASS?

The Advanta Settlement Class is represented by Plaintiffs' Counsel: R. Frederick Walters, Kip D. Richards, David M. Skeens, J. Michael Vaughan, and Garrett M. Hodes of the law firm Walters Bender Strohhahn & Vaughan, P.C. If you have questions regarding the Settlement, this Notice or your options, you can contact Plaintiffs' Counsel without charge by writing to them at the address provided above, or by calling 1-877-472-6620 (or 816-421-6620 if in the KC Metro Area) or by visiting the website of Plaintiffs' Counsel, www.wbsvlaw.com and clicking on the link "Gilmor Advanta Settlement."

9. WHAT ARE THE REASONS FOR SETTLEMENT?

The Named Plaintiffs and Advanta have agreed to the Settlement after considering, among other things, (i) Advanta's bankruptcy; (ii) the substantial benefits available to the Advanta Settlement Class under the terms of the Agreement; (iii) the attendant risks and uncertainty of litigation, especially in complex litigation such as this, as well as the difficulties and considerable delays inherent in such litigation; (iv) the vigorousness of the defenses asserted by Advanta; and (v) the desirability of consummating the Settlement promptly to provide effective relief to the Advanta Settlement Class.

The Court has not ruled on the merits of the claims or defenses in this case, and Advanta has denied and continues to deny each and every claim asserted against them. Advanta denies and continues to deny all charges of wrongdoing or liability against it arising out of or relating to any of the conduct, statements, acts, or omissions alleged, or that could have been alleged in the Lawsuit. Nonetheless, Advanta has concluded that further litigation and a trial of the claims would be protracted, burdensome, and expensive, and that it is desirable that the Lawsuit be fully and finally settled as against it in the manner and on the terms and conditions set forth in the Agreement.

10. WILL THE NAMED PLAINTIFFS OR PLAINTIFFS' COUNSEL RECEIVE COMPENSATION?

Yes. Plaintiffs, as representatives of the Advanta Settlement Class, will make applications to the Court for approval of what is called an "incentive award." Such awards are used and made in class action lawsuits to provide an "incentive" to individuals like Michael and Shellie Gilmor and the other Named Plaintiffs to file and prosecute class action lawsuits for the benefit of a class of people they do not know. The award also compensates the representatives of a class for their work and time as class representatives (being interviewed and deposed, reviewing documents, meeting and conferring with class counsel, etc.). Plaintiffs will ask the Court to approve and make an incentive award to the Named Plaintiffs in the amount of $250.00 per couple totaling $1,000.00 for their time and efforts in the Litigation. Advanta will not object to Plaintiffs' applications, but the Court must still determine and approve the amount of any incentive award to be made as "reasonable." Any incentive award made to Plaintiffs will be paid from the Settlement Fund in order to determine the Net Settlement Fund and Net Distributable Settlement Fund, the latter of which will be distributed to the Advanta Settlement Class Members as "Advanta Settlement Class Member Payments" as described in Section 4 above.

Plaintiffs' Counsel has prosecuted this litigation on a contingency fee basis and has incurred or advanced all of the costs associated with the Lawsuit since it was first filed in June 2000. Plaintiffs' Counsel has not yet been paid for their work or received reimbursement for the expenses incurred or advanced on behalf of the Plaintiffs and the members of the Advanta Settlement Class and the other members of the Litigation Class. The Court must determine and approve the amount of any such awards of attorney's fees and litigation expenses to be made to Plaintiffs' Counsel. The amount of any such award must be reasonable based on a number of factors including, but not limited to, the nature and extent of the work involved, the difficulty of the case and the issues presented, the skill needed to conduct the case properly, the experience, reputation and ability of the lawyers, the contingency or certainty of compensation, the customary charges for similar work, and the amount involved in the controversy and the benefits resulting to the client.

Based on these and other factors, and as a part of the Settlement, Plaintiffs' Counsel and/or the Named Plaintiffs will request the Court to approve an award of attorney's fees and litigation expenses not to exceed the following amounts: (a) $72,687.64 for an allocated share of the more than $488,933.94 of litigation expenses and costs that Plaintiffs' Counsel has incurred and advanced in connection with the Lawsuit/Claims as of October 11, 2012; and (b) approximately 22% of the "Net Settlement Fund" as defined above in Section 4 of this Notice. The amounts of any such expense and attorney's fees awards made to Plaintiffs' Counsel will be deducted and paid from the Settlement Fund and Net Settlement Fund, respectively, before the Advanta Settlement Class Member Payments are distributed to the Advanta Settlement Class Members as described in Section 4 above.

Advanta will not object to the above applications for expenses and attorney's fees by Plaintiffs' Counsel, but the Court must also determine and approve the amount of any such expense and attorney's fee awards as "reasonable." If the Court approves and makes the expense and attorney's fees awards as proposed, the Advanta Settlement Class Members will receive $178,389.45 (approximately 55 %) of the Net Settlement Fund. Plaintiffs' Counsel will receive the remaining $145,955.00 (approximately 45 %) of the Net Settlement Fund under the Settlement as proposed.

The range and average of the Settlement Payments described above in Section 4 of this Notice have been estimated with the expectation that the Court will approve as reasonable the applications for the above stated expense and attorney's fees awards given, among other things, the complexity of the case, the nature and extent of the legal work provided by Plaintiffs' Counsel since 2000, and the results obtained for the Advanta Settlement Class. If the Court approves an award of expenses or attorney's fees in an amount less than that applied for, the difference shall be reallocated to the Net Settlement Fund or the Net Distributable fund, as applicable.

11. WHAT CLAIMS WILL BE RELEASED UNDER THE SETTLEMENT?

If approved by the Court and effective in accordance with its terms, the proposed Settlement will be legally binding upon all members of the Advanta Settlement Class who did not timely request exclusion from the Advanta Settlement Class. The Settlement will fully, finally and forever release, settle, compromise, relinquish and discharge any and all of the Released Persons, as defined in the Agreement, from the Released Claims, also as defined in the Agreement, as of the Effective Date.

The Releases mean that you cannot bring any lawsuit against Advanta or any of the other “Released Persons” as defined in the Agreement for any reason whatsoever relating to the “Released Claims,” which are also defined in the Agreement; but you will of course be able to enforce your rights under the Agreement, if necessary. If you are currently litigating any claims against Advanta or any other “Released Person” in any other lawsuit or proceeding, including Advanta’s bankruptcy proceeding, either individually or as part of a class, you may be barred from continuing to pursue those claims if you do not timely exclude yourself from the Advanta Settlement Class in this case. If you are currently litigating any such claims, you should consult with an attorney concerning your rights immediately.

The term “Releasers” is defined in the Agreement at paragraph 2.41 as:

[T]he Plaintiffs’ Counsel, Named Plaintiffs and the other Advanta Settlement Class Members, and each of their respective heirs, executors, administrators, assigns, predecessors, and successors, and any other person claiming by or through any or all of them. It is understood that the releases to be given by the “Releasers,” as defined herein, shall only release the Released Persons from the Released Claims, and nothing more, as provided herein.

The term “Released Persons” is defined in the Agreement at paragraph 2.40 as:
